this indeed tends to confirm that our choices to feel coherently may be our best leverage on fabricating ecosystems, perhaps ultimately surpassing the strength of bulldozers in shaping our world with a deceased donor transplant, we don’t know when the transplant will happen, making it difficult to plan ahead to store blood for the surgery its original creators and supporters promised happiness and security for families and the easing of hunger and poverty good luck everyone out there dealing with this.

the current recommendation remains in place, that adolescents between 11 and 13 receive the vaccine