also, the murder of women and children was having a morale sapping effect on some of the troops involved during training in psychiatry I had the opportunity to observe withdrawal of addicts at the federal narcotics hospital in Lexington, Kentucky