So I wouldn’t mind going out with two FBI sidearms like a fucking Egyptian pharaoh and annotated.

He is currently facing 30 counts of prescribing narcotics and 14 additional counts of prescribing and selling controlled substances.

As more patients live longer, even beat the disease, researchers continue to work on the balancing act to determine how much treatment is just enough without causing long-term negative effects.